NICHOLAS CAMPBELL OF NARCISSUS ART

ART

So Narcissistic

Most of us assume that a contemporary-art consultant is out of our reach, as is a personal concierge. But these two exact services have joined forces in an affordable way as consultancy Narcissus Art partners with digital-concierge-app Source! to bring subscribers a monthly round-up of artists and events worth exploring. No overpriced art snobbery here—Narcissus Art is one of a new breed of consultancies that knows it's not just millionaires who want interesting art. narcissusarts.com
